

Professional Experience

The Leck Family

Nanny/Personal Assistant

May 2009 – Present

Responsibilities included: Caring for and managing the daily needs of an four children, ranging in age from 3 – 14 years; activities included creating nurturing learning experiences, taking them to school, instilling discipline, etc. Occasional responsibilities included personal shopping, personal chef, overnight and weekend stays, organizing and managing travel preparations, along with occasional accompaniment, as needed.

BVG, Inc.

Nanny/Personal Assistant

August 1998 – February 2009

Responsibilities included: Caring for and managing the daily needs of premature twins, including prescription medications, oxygen machines and heart monitors. As the twins grew older, responsibilities adapted to creating nurturing learning experiences, attending play dates, overseeing homework, discipline, etc. Occasional responsibilities included personal shopping, personal chef, managing service personnel, overnight and weekend stays, organizing and managing travel preparations, along with occasional accompaniment, as needed.

The Hatten Family.

Nanny/Personal Assistant

June 2002 – August 2007

Responsibilities included: Caring for and managing the daily needs of an 18 month old and newborn twins; as the children grew older, responsibilities adapted to creating nurturing learning experiences, attending play dates, discipline, etc. Occasional responsibilities included personal shopping, personal chef, overnight and weekend stays, organizing and managing travel preparations, along with occasional accompaniment, as needed.

The Hawley Family

Nanny/Personal Assistant

January 1997 – May 2003

Responsibilities included: Caring for and managing the daily needs of an 18 month old and a 3.5 year old; as the children grew older, responsibilities adapted to creating nurturing learning experiences, attending play dates, overseeing homework, picking up and dropping off from preschool, discipline, etc. Occasional responsibilities included personal shopping, personal chef, and overnight and weekend stays.

The Storey Family

Nanny

January 1996 – June 1997

Responsibilities included: Caring for and managing the daily needs of premature twins, including prescription medications, daily walks and outings, and creating nurturing learning experiences.

The Henry Family

Nanny

August 1994 – October 1995

Responsibilities included: Caring for and managing the daily needs of 4 year old and an asthmatic infant, including prescription medications, daily walks and outings, and creating nurturing learning experiences.

Education

Land O' Lakes High School Alumni (with Honors) – 1994

Attended Pasco/Hernando Community College – 1994 -1996